BENEDICTION THE REVEREND HARRISON RAY ANDERSON, D.D.
Minister of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, Chicago

THE HONORARY DEGREES

DOCTOR OF SACRED THEOLOGY—HARRISON RAY ANDERSON

Distinguished minister of the Gospel; loved pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church of Chicago, ministering to many Northwestern students on the Chicago Campus; Chaplain in World War I; wise counselor of multitudes of young and old; skilled administrator of his own great parish; influential in the affairs of his denomination and of the church at large.

Presented by Charles Samuel Braden, Associate Professor of History and Literature of Religions

DOCTOR OF LAWS—ROYAL EUBANK CABELL

A distinguished lawyer and scholar whose educational associations include Roanoke College, Princeton University, University of Virginia, and Richmond College; a public servant; one-time United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue; an authority on taxation; a distinguished citizen of Richmond; a friend of education.

Presented by Ovid Wallace Eshbach, Dean of the Technological Institute

DOCTOR OF LITERATURE—DOUGLAS SOUTHALL FREEMAN

A newspaper editor who has always upheld the best traditions of the American Press; a successful teacher of journalism; a scholar whose researches in Virginia history have been thorough, extensive, and fruitful; a distinguished author who, in his biography of General Lee and other works, combines an admirable popularity with power and solidity of style; winner of the Pulitzer Prize; a public-spirited citizen who has given generously of his time in the constructive service of his community, his state, and his nation.

Presented by T. Moody Campbell, Professor of German and Dean of the Graduate School

DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS—JOHN T. McCUTCHEON

For fifty years a war correspondent, a master editorial artist, and today the dean of American cartoonists; a kindly philosopher whose magic touch has taught millions the greatness of simple, wholesome things; a gentle humorist who has often held up the mirror to the frailties and foibles of his fellowmen, but a courageous soldier of the pen whenever there are wrongs to be righted; a trusted friend of the nation's leaders and himself the revered leader of millions of newspaper readers.

Presented by Kenneth E. Olson, Professor of Journalism and Dean of the Medill School of Journalism

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE—FRED WHARTON RANKIN

A distinguished surgeon whose originality, skill, and precepts have gone far to alleviate human suffering; President of the American Medical Association; now a Brigadier General in the United States Army. His leadership and his knowledge of the medical profession are of invaluable service not only to the care of our armed forces but to our civilian population as well.

Presented by Dr. Frederick Christopher, Associate Professor of Surgery

DOCTOR OF LAWS—GEORGE VEAZEY STRONG

A graduate of the Law School of this University; advisor to various international conferences; distinguished for his publications dealing with the languages of Japan and China; recipient of the Distinguished Service Cross, the Purple Heart Medal, and the Cross of the Legion of Honor for gallantry in action; Major General of the Army of the United States and Assistant Chief of Staff of that Army.

Presented by Colonel Nathan William MacChesney, United States Army, a member of the Board of Trustees

DOCTOR OF LAWS—FRANK KNOX

Newsboy, printer's apprentice and reporter in his early years in Michigan; graduate of Alma College; newspaper publisher in Michigan, in New Hampshire and in Illinois; a private soldier in the Rough Riders in the Spanish-American War, a fighting Colonel of Artillery in World War I; Republican candidate for Vice President in 1936; the distinguished Secretary of the United States Navy, who has honored us today.

*Presented by Rawleigh Warner, a member of the

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

Oh, say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does the Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Oh, thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
Between their loved home and wild war's desolation;
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land
Praise the Pow'r that hath made and preserved us a nation!
Then conquer we must, for our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"
And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

INVOCATION

The Reverend Charles W. Kegley
Chairman, University Board of Religion

ADDRESS

Kenneth F. Burgess
President of the Board of Trustees

HYMN

O God, Our Help in Ages Past

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home!

A thousand ages, in Thy sight,
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night,
Before the rising sun.

Under the shadow of Thy throne
Still may we dwell secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defense is sure.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while life shall last,
And our eternal home. Amen.
